The diagram is a genealogical chart template. It features a central vertical line. From this line, horizontal branches extend to the left and right. On the left side, there are two main branches, each leading to a horizontal line for a name and a registration number. On the right side, there are two main branches, each leading to a horizontal line for a name and a registration number. The chart is designed to be filled out with specific data for a particular animal and its lineage.
